Catholic Human Services, in support of International Overdose Awareness Day, will host the Butterfly Release Memorial. The Butterfly Release Memorial is being organized to remember those that have lost their life to substance use, acknowledge those who struggle with substance use, and support those that are in recovery. The Butterfly Release Memorial is being held on August 31, 2023 from 5-7pm at the Cadillac Rotary Pavilion in Cadillac, MI.

COUNTIES SERVED:

Crawford
Kalkaska
Lake
Manistee
Mason
Mecosta
Missaukee
Newaygo
Oceana
Wexford

The event will have a keynote speaker that is a certified peer recovery coach, a moment of silence, Naloxone kits and training, sharps disposals, HIV testing, and DHD#10's Mobile Unit and Syringe Service Program.

For questions, to reserve a butterfly for release, or to send a loved one's photo for inclusion in the memorial, please contact Carrie at 231-280-5789.

For more information on DHD#10's Syringe Service Program, as well as Naloxone Distribution Box locations, please visit: <https://www.dhd10.org/men-women/syringe-service-program-ssp/>.
